Notes for Matilda Fancourt:

General Notes:

A record of a death of a Matilda Fancourt in 1922 in Blackburn was found somewhere. This appears to be someone other than my Auntie Tilly, because she apparently married Frank Ollett and would not have been recorded as a Fancourt on her death record.

Also, the photos of her taken in Southampton seem to be about 1930-odd, when Mum and Dad are in their 20's and she would be early 50's.

Generation 5

- 16. Unknown Loughran. His death Bef. 1851 in Blackburn, Lancashire (Assumed (children born in Blackburn)).
- 17. Ann Loughran [83]. She was born 1813 in Ireland [28, 84]. Residence 1861 in 49 Lark Hill, Blackburn, Lancashire [28]. Employment 1871 in Blackburn, Lancashire (Char-Woman) [84].

Notes for Ann Loughran:

General Notes:

In the 1851 Census, Ann Loughran is recorded as a 40 years old Widow, born 1813, boarding, along with her children William, John, Samuel and Rachel, with Thomas Gilmore (spelled 'Gillmore', widower) at 27 Salford St, Blackburn. In the 1861 Census, Thomas Gilmour (sic) is recorded as having a wife Ann and two children Samuel and Rachel. William, who would be 23 and John, 20, are absent from the 1861 census - presumably having left home.

There is confusion here because, although the ages of Samuel and Rachel are consistent between the censuses, Thomas's age is given as 38 in 1851 and 46 in 1861. Ann is given as 40 in 1851 and 48 in 1861. However, both Thomas and Ann are recorded as of Irish origin in both censuses, and Thomas as a Cooper in both. It is interesting that in the 1871 census, Samuel, who in 1861 is working in a cotton mill, has become a Cooper.

In the 1871 census, Thomas and Ann, 57 and 58 - vaguely consistent with previous censuses, have boarders. One of those is Rachel Marsden (aged 23), married to James, accompanied by children Mary Ann, John Thomas and Elizabeth - mainly family names. Is this, in fact, daughter Rachel now married. Again there is an age discrepancy and it would have been usual to record them on the census as daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren. But unless the enumerator was informed of the relationship, he couldn't have stated it.

I can find no record of a marriage between Ann and Thomas.

In looking through many records, we have not come across a single instance of Loughran in English and Irish records. We believe this to be a mistake by the census enumerator, as could be the variable spelling of Gilmore.

On the marriage certificate for Richard and Margaret she only makes 'X her mark'. She was obviously illiterate. She is also not credited on the certificate with any occupation. The marriage certificate only has 'Full' for age - meaning they were of age to marry, i.e. over 21.

Residence Apr 1861 in 17 Johnson St, Great Bolton, Bolton, Lancashire [59]. She died 1873 in Bolton, Lancashire [100].

Notes for Hannah Kelshaw:

General Notes:

The Droskyn data suggests that Hannah had a second family with someone else - but she died before Robert and there is no details of a divorce. She is in the 1871 census with Robert and at the age of 53, second family is unlikely, to say the least. She first appears with Robert, alone, in the 1841 census at the age of 23. Had she had any other children, they would have been with her and Robert. Is Droskyn getting confused with Robert's second wife, Eliza?

She died on 25 Feb 1929.

Notes for Eliza 1 Crosby:

General Notes:

Eliza is the second wife of Robert Gaskell. It is possible that she was formerly married to Henry Crosby who died in 1874.

There is confusion about her original name. Topsy had it as 'Crossley'. The Rushton database has the name as 'Crossby'. From the 1891 entry for Eliza Gaskell (widow) her daughter is clearly given as Crosby.

Robert Gaskell and Eliza 1 Crosby. They were married 1877 in Holy Trinity, Bolton le Moors, Lancashire <sup>[96]</sup>. They had 1 child.

i. Eliza 2 Crosby. She was born on 13 Jan 1872 in Bolton, Lancashire <sup>[104, 105, 106]</sup>. Residence Apr 1881 in 128 Bury Old Road, Tonge With Haulgh, Lancashire. Notes for Mary Cheney:

General Notes:

On the 1861 census Mary's brother's name is given as James Cheaney. The ages of Mary and James match the Cheney family found on the 1841 census - other consistent census records maintain the name Cheney. This is confirmed by Jame's birth record.

William 1 Adams and Mary Cheney. They had 7 children.

- i. John R Adams. He was born 1853 in Flore, Northamptonshire [110]. Residence 1881 in Cottesbrooke, Northamptonshire [110]. Employment Apr 1881 (Cowman, Agricultural Labourer) [110].

Generation 6 (con't)

Notes for James Cheney:

General Notes:

There is a small doubt whether James Cheney and James Cheaney, the brother of William Adams's wife, are one and the same. The age on the 1861 census, 21, and the place of birth, Laughton, which is in the registration district of Market Harborough, match the James Cheney of the birth registration. There is no matching birth record for a James Cheaney. From 1861 James Cheaney can be traced through censuses under that name, his parents under Cheney.

- vii. William 3 Cheney. His birth 1854 in Laughton, Leicestershire (From unsaved census after 1841).

Notes for William 3 Cheney:

This birth has not been followed up. In looking through censuses to confirm the surname, I found William 2 a an apprentice and then lost him. Did he die before William 3? Or is William 3 actually a grandson?

I have no idea how these fit into Thomas's extended family.
