Notes for Margaret Vickers:

General Notes:

On the marriage certificate for Richard and Margaret she only makes 'X her mark'. She was obviously illiterate. She is also not credited on the certificate with any occupation. The marriage certificate only has 'Full' for age - meaning they were of age to marry, i.e. over 21.

Residence Apr 1861 in 17 Johnson St, Great Bolton, Bolton, Lancashire^[14]. She died 1873 in Bolton, Lancashire^[36].

Notes for Hannah Kelshaw:

General Notes:

The Droskyn data suggests that Hannah had a second family with someone else - but she died before Robert and there is no details of a divorce. She is in the 1871 census with Robert and at the age of 53, second family is unlikely, to say the least. She first appears with Robert, alone, in the 1841 census at the age of 23. Had she had any other children, they would have been with her and Robert. Is Droskyn getting confused with Robert's second wife, Eliza?

Notes for Eliza 1 Crosby:

General Notes:

Eliza is the second wife of Robert Gaskell. It is possible that she was formerly married to Henry Crosby who died in 1874.

There is confusion about her original name. Topsy had it as 'Crossley'. The Rushton database has the name as 'Crosby'. From the 1891 entry for Eliza Gaskell (widow) her daughter is clearly given as Crosby.
