- vi. James Cheney. His birth Jun 1840 in Laughton, Leicestershire (1841 Census and BMD Market Harborough 15 186). He was also known as James Cheaney.

Notes for James Cheney:

General Notes:

There is a small doubt whether James Cheney and James Cheaney, the brother of William Adams's wife, are one and the same. The age on the 1861 census, 21, and the place of birth, Laughton, which is in the registration district of Market Harborough, match the James Cheney of the birth registration. There is no matching birth record for a James Cheaney. From 1861 James Cheaney can be traced through censuses under that name, his parents under Cheney.

- vii. William 3 Cheney. His birth 1854 in Laughton, Leicestershire (From unsaved census after 1841).

Notes for William 3 Cheney:

General Notes:

This birth has not been followed up. In looking through censuses to confirm the surname, I found William 2 as an apprentice and then lost him. Did he die before William 3? Or is William 3 actually a grandson?

This record is clearly dodgy. I prefer the inf given in Sabina's Birthday book as far as date of death is concerned. Her probable place of death is Watford, but it is possible she returned to relatives in Pitstone.

There is a Stanmore in Bucks, but Stanmore in Oz is clearly stupid.
